

Francoise: 18 of my Favorite Paintings

People ask me what inspired me to paint my vibrant tropical paintings, and I'd have to say Nature! I have a passion for all forms of nature. Fields of wild flowers, beaches that stretch for miles, the spectacular ocean, and most of all, the many various types of tropical wildlife. Growing up on a tropical island, at a young age I became enthralled with the many species of colorful birds, tree frogs, turtles and wildlife that roam the islands. I use an impressionistic style and my Caribbean background to create a vibrant collection of original tropical paintings. I love nature, and I love tropical animals, especially birds, because they are expressive and colorful, and my art is very colorful. Bright reds, turquoises and blues come together in textured portrayal of tropical wildlife showcasing colors inspired by my life in Haiti as a child. Includes the following paintings: ~ Bad Hair Day ~ Oscar ~ Chloe ~ Reflections ~ Prince the Belgian ~ Island Houses ~ Charlene at the Beach ~ Martini and More ~ Girl with Butterfly ~ Chum ~ The Window ~ Panama Hattie ~ Walking the Beach ~ Red Parasol ~ Cuban Carnival Girl ~ Boat in Aruba ~ Yellow Tree Frog ~ Endless Summer
