

Tribal Embroidery Two: Handstitched

Tribal embroidery from the Kutch area of Gujarat in India is renowned for its stunning designs patterned on the magical colors of vegetable dyed pieces of fabric. This background of uniquely colored patchwork is intricately adorned with sparkling chain-stitched metallic thread and colorful mirror-encrusted embroidery. Brilliant sequins, beads, and small shells are also used for enhancing the beauty of this traditional handicraft. This journal displays eye-catching craft embellished with this vibrant art form. It is handstitched with open-back spines and silky matte laminated paper covers over boards. The embroidery is gold stamped. Lined creamy, archival-quality paper.
