

Coming Into the World: Daily Reflections for Advent 2016

In today's Western evangelical churches and homes, advent is a rich and joyful celebration. It is used to commemorate the second coming of Jesus and to prepare the hearts of Christian disciples to celebrate the remembrance of the birth of our Savior. In our modern, busy lives, advent is an opportunity for Christians to slow down and remember the real purpose for Christmas is not parties, gifts, and ski trips, but is about honoring the birth of our risen King. This daily advent devotional provides Scripture, study, and guided prayer to help you and your family focus on Jesus during the Christmas season. My hope is that through my prayer, hours of research, and writing, you and your family are impacted in a positive way. I pray I have been able to convey a Reformed and covenantal perspective of our Father's inerrant Word. God can certainly use this cracked vessel to bring himself glory, if he so chooses. It is my prayer you and your family receive benefit from this devotional and it brings you closer to our Father. If you do not have a saving relationship with Jesus Christ, I pray you drop to your knees before you continue reading and take the gift he has already given you. How much more sweet this advent season will be if it is your first within the body of Christ. I pray God receives glory from both my writing and your worship with this book.
