

The Journey Home: Inspiring Passages From Near-Death Experiences to Comfort the Dying

The Journey Home was written for the terminally ill. Everyone who approaches death experiences some degree of fear. By reading the passages from those who have experienced profound unconditional love and incredibly beautiful Near-Death Experiences, the authors hope these passages will create a genuinely positive expectation for the journey they are about to take. They ask the dear one who is preparing to make their transition to imagine that their heart is creating a precious inner sanctuary to hold, nourish and cherish these passages, and to retreat into their heart sanctuary for comfort whenever fear or sorrow arises.
